ABSTRACT

This paper discusses the use of English in teaching students in Economic Faculty. Since English is a foreign language, there are many difficulties that occurred in class and had to be faced by the teacher. This study attempted to answer the research question, "What are the teachers' difficulties in teaching using English in international class of the Economic department?". The participants of this research were three teachers of ICMAP class in Economic Faculty. The method for data collection used in this research was descriptive method with observation and interview. Semi-structured interview was used. The finding showed that there were seven difficulties faced by the teachers: classroom management, communication with students, teachers confidence, students' English ability, teaching strategy and method, motivating students, and making lesson plan.
